IMPORT OF EXHIBITS

Import of Exhibits

Foreign Exhibitors at EWCI 2014 shall file all documentations meant for Customs in the name of EWCI 2014 and are allowed to import non-consumable goods required for display in the Exhibition without paying any import duty, provided the goods in question are re-exported within a period of six months from the date of import into India, as per the information below.

ATA Carnet

India is a signatory to the ATA Carnet System and import of goods is governed by its rules. All Exhibitors belonging to the Member Countries of ATA Carnet will get ATA Carnet issued from their country's Chambers of Commerce or any agency authorised to issue Carnet duly certified by the customs. When goods arrive in India, the temporary importation for six months will be allowed on the basis of the ATA Carnet procedure.

The following categories of items will not, however, be covered and the Exhibitors are advised to file separate bills of entry as the temporary imports will be governed by the Government of India's normal rules.

- a) All consumable goods meant for distribution or sale which are not likely to be re-exported.
- b) Goods imported through the medium of post.
- c) Transit goods.

A separate bill of entry will be required to be filled-in for such consignments and import clearance will be governed by normal rules of the Government of India Customs Rules.

The temporary import of the Exhibits, goods from the countries who are not members of ATA Carnet, will be governed by the following rules:

- a) The Exhibitors will be required to produce a guarantee letter from their respective Embassies in India.
- b) If the exhibits are not guaranteed by the Embassy, some local Indian company, acceptable to the Collector of Customs, must stand guarantee before a Bank Guarantee can be waived.
- c) In case the Exhibitor cannot comply with (a) and (b) above, they will have to produce a bank Guarantee to the tune of 250% of the invoice value of the goods, as per the Customs Rules.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertisements in the Souvenir

A Multi-colour Souvenir of EWCI 2014 containing information about Conference, Messages from Dignitaries and Directory of Exhibitors will be distributed among the participants in the Conference.

An advertisement in the Souvenir will give additional mileage and attracts visitors to your Booth and their attention to your products. It is a productive investment because visitors refer to the Souvenir for Exhibitors Listing, booth location, conferences programmes and other data during the exhibition. In addition, the Souvenir is used after the Exhibition as well for product source guide.

Advertisements in the Conference Proceedings

The Conference Proceedings hard copy contains all the Technical Papers presented in the EWCI 2014 Conference. This book will be provided to all the Delegates free of cost. It would also be provided to technical libraries and others on demand for a cost. Full colored advertisements are solicited in the Proceedings.

Advertisements Rates

The advertisements tariff for both Souvenir and Proceedings are given in the following table. Full payment, in advance should be made directly (without involving an Ad Agency) to the organisers along with the booking of advertisements, latest by 1 January 2014.
